What does God love about me? What did He have in mind when He created me? What is my specific purpose and design? Who am I in Christ? Have you ever asked God to show you his love and reveal the plans he has uniquely for you? The Creator of the universe longs to stoop down and whisper in your ear that He loves you. He desires to reveal to you his plans and purpose for your life. He made you unique – one of a kind – and he longs to show you very personally from his Word his thoughts about you.

Unfortunately, we also have an enemy who is trying to attack our identity. He knows that if he can steal from us the truth of who we are then he can keep us from everything that God had destined for us to become. Join us this semester as we dig up the lies we have believed and tear off the false labels we have worn, replacing them with the truth of who God says we are. We will then be free to become the women God made us to be! It's time for us to get rid of our own imperfect perceptions of ourselves and walk in our God-given purpose, destiny, and calling.

We hope you'll join us for large group teaching, weekly journaling, small group discussion, and at-home personal encounter as we discover who we are in Christ this semester.

We hope you'll join us for large group teaching, small group discussion, and at-home personal encounter as we discover how God wants to uniquely reveal Himself to us this semester. The more we study His names and learn their meanings, the more we will be able to trust Him with our lives.
